David Wain, Wain's Orchids,
Melbourne Vic

David Wain has been growing and breeding Cymbidium Orchids for a number of years and has been a commercial grower for fifteen years. He supplies major growers in China and Holland. Amongst other awards, he took Grand Champion at the 2004 Australian National Cymbidium Show with Valley Olympic 'Pink Perfection' and his Valley Freeman 'Lachie' (named after his son) is in a number of cymbidium collections. On 9 March 2013 he was a guest speaker at the Santa Barbara California, Annual Cymbidium Congress – he will share his views on the development and cultivation of cymbidiums with us a year later, on 8 & 9 March 2014 at Moruya.

Dennis Diehm, Dendi Orchids,
Griffith NSW

Dennis Diehm and his wife Dianne own and operate Dendi Orchids. The Nursery was established in 1977 and specializes in the breeding and growing of miniature Cattleya as well as novelty multiflora and harlequin Phalaenopsis. In addition to breeding, Dennis is President of the South and West Region Conference of the NSW Orchid Council and head of the Region's Judging Panel. Dennis will take us through some of his breeding lines and will provide hands on growing advice for both genera.

It is with much pleasure that we invite you to

Neville Roper, Orchid Grower, Woollamia NSW

Neville Roper has been growing orchids for some fifty years and is renowned for his breeding and development of Sarcocilus with colour and character. He has a strong interest in Dockrillia as well. Neville has been a Judge for many years and is an extremely entertaining speaker, happy to relay his opinions and advice on a wide range of orchid related matters. Neville's sessions will provide background and practical advice on these two genera.

Phil Grech, Orchid Grower, Bairnsdale Vic

Phil Grech has probably taken as many, if not more, Grand Championships as any other orchid grower in Australia. Amongst other awards, Phil won the Gold Ira Butler Trophy in 2007 with Dendrobium Jayden 'Goodie.' This plant was Grand Champion and Champion Australian Native Hybrid at the 2007 South and West Regional Conference and Show held at Bega. Phil will present a session on Natives and how to look after them.
